ITEM DESCRIPTION

Built for protection with the look and feel of a classic trainer, the AP318SM blends comfort and durability for everyday wear. Manufactured from black nubuck and breathable mesh, it features a padded collar and tongue to keep you comfortable on the job. A steel toe cap and steel midsole provide reliable protection, while the anti-scuff toe guard helps extend the life of your footwear. The lightweight phylon/rubber outsole offers grip and flexibility, as well as being resistant to fuel oil, heat and oil resistant up to 300 degrees Celsius and achieving the highest slip rating. Ideal for light industrial environments.
